In a tree hollow ,
co - create Youngers' dreams

Enter storybook scenes.
Experience daily life.
Visit a chicken coop like that in your grandmother's backyard.
Start a dialogue with the elders.

In the light of day, by a river,
in the mountains, along a stream, and on the plains, intertwined with mountain scenery and the playing of a traditional xylophone, stories of young people living life to the fullest are told during a banquet.
